The Yacht Show at National Harbor – A Special Event in a Spectacular Venue.

The opening of the 2009 Yacht Show at the picturesque National Harbor waterfront resort on the banks of the Potomac River is scheduled for Friday, May 29, 2009. The show runs through Sunday, May 31, 2009 and will be open from noon to 9pm Friday and Saturday, and noon to 6pm on Sunday.

The second annual production of this exciting event will be located on the Awakening Plaza in the center of continuous activity. Boating equipment, accessories, electronics, clothing, jewelry and much more will be displayed in covered booths extending along the full 600 feet of the main pier. The marina will be full of fine yachts for sale and tour. The classic 124' "Miss Ann" will rest on the dock opposite a waterside cocktail and snack lounge with continuous entertainment.

One of the yachts on display will be the 85' Azimut, presented by Marine Max of Baltimore, MD. The 85 is a Yacht of peerless elegance in its exterior design whilst also offering exceptional livability. Gracefully sinuous lines mark out spacious interiors catering specifically to the many needs and desires of life at sea.

Visitors to the show will be able to enjoy and demo the new AERE' 3.7 Inflatable Catamaran. With this new innovative catamaran allows anyone to enjoy a fun and relaxing time on the water. Great for day sailing, the state-of-the-art, 12' inflatable catamaran sailboat provides easy handling and set up for novice and experienced sailors alike.

Porsche of Arlington will be displaying six new Porsche's. As a special treat on Saturday only, PCA Potomac will have up to 100 members' cars for attendees to view.
